George Mason Gentn having signified his resignation of the Office of a Magistrate for this County, by Letter, the same is ordered to be recorded, and is in these words, to wit, "Gunston Hall July 20th 1789. Gentlemen, As "I do not intend to continue in the Office of a Magistrate or Justice of "the Peace in Fairfax County, I hereby resign the said Office, and desire "that this my Resignation of the same may be entered of Record, that I "may not be subjected to censure, for refusing to execute the Duty's of an "office, which I no longer hold. I am, with much respect, your Worship's most "obdt Servt G. Mason. To the worshipful the Justices of Fairfax County Court."