Help the Reston District Station Lend a Helping Hand this Holiday Season to Victims of Domestic Violence in Fairfax County

Artemis House, which is open 24 hours a day, offers safe, confidential, emergency, and short-term residential services and supportive counseling to those who are fleeing physical violence from an intimate partner. The Reston District Station has partnered with the Artemis House to collect emergency supplies for domestic violence victims in Fairfax County.

The Artemis House is in need of these emergency supplies:

Food – non- perishable

Ready-to-eat canned meats, fish, fruits, vegetables, beans and soups
Protein or fruit bars
Dry cereal or granola
Peanut butter and nuts
Dried fruit
Crackers
Canned juices
Bottled water
Canned or jarred baby food
Baby formula

Other non-perishable items

Tools and Supplies
Flashlight w/ extra batteries
Portable radio
Manual can opener
Disposable diapers
Paper plates, cups, utensils
Personal hygiene items (toothbrush, toothpaste, comb, feminine products)

Medical and Health Emergency Supplies

Medicines for fever (acetaminophen or Ibuprofen)
Cough medicines
Infant/baby Tylenol and ibuprofen
Thermometer
Anti-diarrheal medication
Sterile gauze pads (3 x 3 and 4 x 4)
Cohesive bandage
Germicidal hand wipes
Alcohol based hand sanitizer
Antiseptic wipes
Anti-bacterial ointment
Cold pack
Scissors (small, personal)
Vitamins
Fluids with electrolytes
Cleansing agent/soap

Drop off your donations to the Reston District Station 12000 Bowman Town Drive, Reston, VA. If you have any questions, please contact the Reston Crime Prevention Office at 703-478-0799 or restoncpo@fairfaxcounty.gov