I-66 Town Hall Meeting: Rescheduled

I-66 Town Hall Meeting: I-66—Today and the Future: Common Sense Solutions to Address Gridlock

When: Monday, April 19, 2010
7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Where: Fairfax County Government Center –Board Auditorium
12000 Government Center Parkway
Fairfax, VA 22035

Congressman Frank Wolf and Fairfax County Supervisors Michael Frey and Pat Herrity will host a panel of local, state, and national transportation experts to explore common sense solutions to the ever worsening gridlock on I-66.

Issues to be discussed include establishing a Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) system in the corridor, increasing the use of shoulder lanes, opening the Monument Drive and Stringfellow Road interchanges for non-HOV vehicles outside of normal HOV hours. Individuals are invited to attend the meeting and participate in the question and answer period after the panel concludes their presentations.
