CASE # CR03-3089, 3090, 3091

Dear Pacman,

I hope you are in high spirits when this letter arrives. I'm holding up the fort as you can see. Well, what subject should we discuss today? How about knowledge and understanding. Well, let us first define the two. Knowledge, is the ~~retai~~ recollection of what one knows. While my definition of understanding is a bit shrewd, I think it is applicable for our discussion. So then, understanding is the grasping and proper implementation of knowledge. Therefore not only the ability to recognize but the additional ability to act on ones recollection and recognition as the will sees fit through reasoning. Will is ability to make decisions based on intellect and rationality. Understanding has two phases, one without the other creates "incompleteness" and instability. The first phase of understanding is technical, this refers to the [illegible] of what is brought into [illegible] by our senses, (seeing, hearing etc). The next phase is practical it is the "action" phase, wherein on "acts" upon knowledge. Let us use an example. A child is warned not to touch the stove, he is not given a reason why not to, he is just warned. Through his inquisitiveness, he or she inquires about the stove and is burnt. Knowledge comes into ~~play~~ effect now because the senses "it is hot" ~~brings~~ allow you to recognize the consequences. You will no longer have to warn that child for now he/she remembers and recollects the consequences and will not touch the lit stove again proving he/she understands. One therefore lacks understanding if through all ~~the~~ your professed knowledge there is no evidence of this through your actions. Knowledge is not power because this only proves you merely now, it is the action after ~~knowledgaing~~ knowledge ~~which the~~ its proper application according to your current situation.

let not your words go before your actions but actions before your words. I can identify the knowladgeable through distinct characteristics. This is what we will discuss next.

Malik.

ARE YOU 'PACING? ✱ PACMAN OR WILL YOU LET THEM TO:
WIN?

Hey pacman,

What did I tell you about that shit man you gotta stop talking like that. What the fuck you mean "I will not see the streets again"? Yes, the chances and odds are against you, but fuck it, you can't give up man, freedom is your right, so you can't give up the fight get up, stand up. This is just a test to see how hard you are man. If you bow or surrender to your condition, you are making all your past actions useless. You don't give, never fucking give up. You have a choice, yes we only have 1% control of our life, master your emotions, learn not to show your face, and wait for the opportunity. I had my chance to escape, I fucked up. And you know what? they are going to fuck up again, But this time they will pay the consequence. Your life is what you make it. I can't make you want freedom, how bad do you want it man? ask yourself the question. How bad? Don't talk me to death prove it, god damn it. Fuck it your smart enough, you know how to fuck with peoples head, ~~yo~~ use your talents, master you weaknesses, I am telling you man when you master you ANGER. You will do great things. You can achieve whatsoever your mind can see. Let me explain to you the power of words. God created us in his image making us "like God", we are gods but no "THE GOD"! What did god ~~do~~ first do, he said be "the word" and it is. So if we are like him "his image" our words have the same power if we believe. The universe gives you what your inner self truly believes. Not only do you have to believe you have to know yourself. When you hear punks talk don't let that shit fuck your day up, do not get involved in there shit. You understand he is a pussy, leave it that way. Think of it this way, what he is, is not my business, but since I know he is a punk how can he help me in "ANY WAY" to achieve my goal. He might be a punch but know how to make some shit. From everyone there is something to learn, listen, observe, study, and wait. It might take 1 years, 2 years even ten years, but for all you know you 1 shot! to leave might come tomorrow, so you have to be prepared, first mentally, then physically. If you become complacent and let this situation destroy you, you do not deserve freedom. It ain't FREE. Every day is a fight.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS
TO "WIN" OR "LOSE"

You will find few brothers willing, there is a 99.99% chance you will have to do this by yourself. Wherever you settle next, study these motherfuckers, learn SECURITY codes, know them all by name, the shift changes, what shift, who is CARELESS, AND WHO IS A HARDASS. THEY WILL FUCK UP. GET A JOB. STUDY THE Facility/prison make a map. Look for SECURITY WEAKNESSES. AND WHEN YOU FIND ONE, WAIT FOR YOUR BEST CHANCE and leave. If I was in population what the fuck do you think I would be doing. planning) ~~not~~ waiting looking everyday. I dont know about you, but I'll die trying. It is a waiting game, do not allow them to wear you out man. You can't do this for me it is for yourself man.

"KNOW THY SELF"

"LIFE IS YOUR RIGHT SO YOU CANT GIVE UP THE FIGHT."

"THIS A WAITING GAME TRUST ME IF YOU KEEP LOOKING YOU'LL FIND THEIR WEAKNESS."

"WETHER I'M DEAD OR ALIVE I WILL BE WITH YOU MAN, AND IF I DIE AND YOU ALLOW THEM TO MAKE YOU A PUSSY, I WILL SEE."

USE THAT TO TURN CT PLAY WITH THESE PEOPLE MAKE (MAKE BELIEVE FRIENDS) ALLIES THEY serve your purpose but dont know it.

"Tell yourself everyday, I'm dead serious man, that you LOVE YOURSELF AND TODAY IS NOT MY DAY TO DIE. SAY IT UNTIL YOU BELIEVE IT. "I LOVE PACMAN, THERE NONE LIKE ME, TODAY I CHOSE TO LIVE, ~~AND WH~~ I'M WAITING, AND WHEN THEY FUCK UP I'LL BE FREE.

TIME WILL TELL!
MY FRIEND OH! TIME WILL TELL.

EVERY DAY IS A FIGHT LIVING IS MY RIGHT.
