

Fairfax County and Cox present:

Unite, Uplift and Celebrate!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Explore Black history in Fairfax County and celebrate perseverance and resiliency with remarks by:

Jeffrey C. McKay
Chairman of the Fairfax County
Board of Supervisors

Bryan Hill
Fairfax County Executive

Rodney L. Lusk
Franconia District Supervisor
Fairfax County

A panel of community members will discuss the many ways Black history is being celebrated, shared and preserved for future generations

Panel Moderator:

Brian Heintz
Teacher, Applied History
Fairfax County Public Schools

Panelists:

Mary Lipsey
Retired Educator
Assists the African American History
Inventory and student historical marker project.

Brenda Faison
Director of Christian
Education and Missions
Bethlehem Baptist Church

Sean Miller
FCPS Teacher/
History and Social Studies
Department Chair

Etta Willson
Co-author; "Black Communities of Fairfax:
a History"

Marion Dobbins
Historian and Ethnographer

Bring the family. We look forward to seeing you for this reflective and uplifting program.

Sponsored by the Fairfax County Black History Program Committee in partnership with Cox.

Fairfax County is committed to nondiscrimination on the basis of disability in all county programs, services and activities. Reasonable accommodations made upon request; call 703-324-7483, TTY 711. A Fairfax County, VA publication. 2/2024

Join us

FEB. 23
2024

5:30 - 8 p.m.

Fairfax County Government Center Forum
12000 Government Center Pkwy.
Fairfax, VA 22035

Refreshments, entertainment and resource tables
start at 5:30 p.m.

ENTERTAINMENT

Tony Craddock Jr.
MUSICAL ARTIST

Simone Paulwell
SOPRANO

Fairfax County School Age Child Care
STUDENT PERFORMANCE

Herndon High School
Step Team

For more information, contact paul.woods@fairfaxcounty.gov.

