

National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) Training
Hosted by the Office of the Independent Police Auditor and the Police Civilian Review Panel
June 22, 2019
Fairfax County Government Center, Room 9/10
Training Agenda

8:00 a.m. Introduction/Training Overview

8:15 a.m. Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement

This session will provide an overview of civilian oversight, its role, and how ensure its sustainability. In addition, it will provide information specific to the review-focused and auditor-focused oversight models.

9:45 a.m. Break

10:00 a.m. Effective Practices in the Conducting and Reviewing of Investigations

Knowing how to effectively conduct an investigation is an important knowledge base for those who are charged with reviewing completed investigations of allegations of officer misconduct. This hands-on session will provide panel members knowledge of what goes into an investigation and effective practices in their review.

11:30 a.m. Working Lunch

12:15 p.m. Effective, Location-Based Community Outreach and Engagement

This session will discuss the ways in which an oversight agency must continually and effectively engage with a vast network of community stakeholders and ensure that all members of the community are given an opportunity for input. Ways to effectively engage the police department and the county attorney's office will be explicitly covered.

1:15 p.m. Recommended Reporting Practices for Civilian Oversight Agencies

This session will discuss what your agency should produce to sustain a level of transparency and accountability regarding police misconduct and the work being done by the agency itself.

2:15 p.m. Break

2:30 p.m. Minimum Training Standards for Civilian Oversight Practitioners and Review Panel Members

Providing an overview of the minimum training standards for civilian oversight practitioners, this session will also explore ways in which an oversight agency can set itself up for successfully fulfilling its mandate.

3:30 p.m. Wrap-Up Discussion

This time will be a discussion of the day and what next steps need to be taken. It will also be an opportunity for feedback.

4:00 p.m. Adjournment

Continental breakfast and boxed lunches will be provided for confirmed attendees.