Stall Rental Rules and Regulations:

Stall rental fees only cover the use of the barn and access to assigned stalls.

Licensee agrees to only use the stall(s) assigned to them by the Equestrian Staff.

Licensee has read and understands the Frying Pan Farm Park Equestrian General Liability Release and Express Assumption of Risk on behalf of themselves and/or their event participants.

Licensee will provide a copy of current, negative coggins for each horse brought onsite and a current certificate of health for each horse transported from out of state.

Licensees are responsible for checking in to the Equestrian Office upon arrival and checking out at the end of their stall rental.

The application of hoof oil, turpentine, betadine or similar products in the barn aisles is prohibited. Stalls and wash stalls are deemed appropriate for this.

Smoking and consumption of alcohol are strictly prohibited on the Equestrian Center grounds.

Licensee is responsible for:

The general care and oversight of their and their participant's horse(s) while on the Frying Pan Farm Park Equestrian Center grounds, or the licensee will be charged additional fees for stable management provided by equestrian center staff.

Providing their own hay, grain, water buckets, stall fans etc.

All stalls MUST have facility approved bedding prior to use. Bagged pine shavings or pellets are acceptable. Loose forms of bedding and straw are prohibited unless specifically approved by the Equestrian Office. Stalls used without bedding will be charged a $65.00 maintenance fee. Bedding can be purchased from the facility.

A mandatory $15.00 cleaning fee is charged per stall used to offset the costs of power washing done between each individual customer's stall use for biohazard safety control.

Licensee will be financially responsible for damages to stalls/equestrian center facilities above normal wear and tear (i.e. broken stall door(s), clogged wash bay drains from manure/bedding not being properly removed, damage from horse(s) kicking, pawing, cribbing or any other generally destructive behavior.)
