A message from Kathy Smith

I hope everyone is enjoying the summer weather! We've been busy here in the Sully District office. Today (Friday) is our 2nd Pokemon themed event with Supervisor Herrity and the Fairfax Police to better educate our young constituents on safety while playing the game.

Tomorrow (Saturday) will be the first 2016 Starlight Cinema at Trinity Center at 6 p.m. Our movie this week is Minions (rated PG).

This weekend you can take advantage of the Virginia Sales Tax Holiday and I've included more information below.

The Board is in summer recess until September but I am in the office and available for constituent meetings- so if you have anything you would like to bring to my attention please just reply to this email.

National Night Out

National Night Out was a wonderful experience! It was great for the community to interact with the Police and the Fire & Rescue Emergency Responders.

Animal Shelter Corner

Meet Loki!

Loki has the longest legs in the animal shelter, and he loves to use them! He is a go-go-go type of guy and would be a great running or hiking partner. He also loves to eat, which is good because he could stand to put on some weight! Loki came to us from one of our rescue partners and we can't wait to find him a fun, active home. Sully Sports Scoop

The first preseason game for our defending NFC East Champion Redskins will be this Thursday night at Atlanta. I'm getting a little bit concerned with our first round pick Josh Doctson still not having taken the practice field.

In other news, NBC 12 in Richmond reports that Gov. McAuliffe met with Redskins owner Dan Snyder last night about relocating the Redskins stadium to Virginia. Stay tuned!
