Case No. CL2019-02911

CLERK, CIRCUIT COURT

DEFENDANT AMBER LAURA HEARD'S MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF HER MOTION TO COMPEL PLAINTIFF JOHN C. DEPP II TO PRODUCE DOCUMENTS

Defendant Amber Laura Heard (“Ms. Heard”), by counsel, hereby files this Memorandum in Support of her Motion to Compel Plaintiff John C. Depp II (“Mr. Depp”) to produce documents in response to Ms. Heard’s pending discovery requests.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Mr. Depp claims that an op-ed published by Ms. Heard in 2018 “revived” allegations made by Ms. Heard in 2016 that Mr. Depp had abused her while under the influence of drugs and alcohol. Now Mr. Depp is flatly refusing to produce critical evidence about the very allegations that he believes are at issue here, based entirely on frivolous relevance objections and purported concerns about privacy—while opposing a protective order that would address those very concerns. In Mr. Depp’s self-serving view, his privacy justifies denying discovery essential to Ms. Heard’s defense, but somehow does not justify the entry of a standard protective order.

In particular, Mr. Depp refuses to produce evidence about his drug and alcohol abuse, even though he purports to challenge statements by Ms. Heard that his substance abuse is inextricably intertwined with his patterns of violent conduct. Mr. Depp also refuses to produce communications with his doctor about incidents of domestic violence and abuse. All of this evidence bears directly on Mr. Depp’s claims; it is certainly likely to lead to the discovery of evidence that explains shifts in Mr. Depp's behavior over time, bears on Mr. Depp's own memory of events at issue, identifies witnesses who observed Mr. Depp's violence or helped cover it up, and provides critical context for Ms. Heard's earlier statements (the truth of which is a complete defense to Mr. Depp's frivolous defamation claim). In short, Mr. Depp cannot seek to litigate the truth of Ms. Heard's allegations about his violent and abusive behavior while intoxicated, insist on proceeding without a protective order, and then blithely refuse to produce evidence that confirms the truth of those allegations on grounds of relevance and "privacy."

BACKGROUND

On July 30, 2019, Ms. Heard served her First Requests for Production (Ex. A), which included requests for the production of (1) communications between Mr. Depp and his agents relating to the use of narcotics by Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard; (2) documents relating to any treatment for alcohol or drug use or abuse by Mr. Depp or Ms. Heard; (3) communications between Mr. Depp and Dr. David Kipper that mention Ms. Heard or any of Mr. Depp's other romantic partners; and (4) documents showing each time Mr. Depp was arrested and the reasons for the arrest (together, the "Disputed RFPs," reproduced in full in Appendix A hereto).

On September 3, 2019, Mr. Depp served Responses and Objections (Ex. B, the "R&Os"), stating, with respect to each of the Disputed RFPs, that "In light of the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will not be producing documents in response to this Request." On September 8, 2019, counsel for Ms. Heard asked counsel for Mr. Depp to withdraw his blanket objections to the Disputed RFPs. (Ex. C.) During a meet-and-confer on September 11, 2019, Mr. Depp's counsel confirmed that he would not agree to produce any documents in response to the Disputed RFPs.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Mr. Depp's counsel further indicated that Mr. Depp seeks to narrow a number of other requests based on similar objections. This Motion concerns only the requests with respect to which Mr. Depp has wholesale refused to produce, and is filed now to allow the case to proceed quickly. If, after further efforts to meet-and-confer, Mr. Depp maintains his objections, Ms. Heard anticipates moving to compel on the other requests as well.

ARGUMENT

Virginia Supreme Court Rule 4:1(b)(1) provides that parties may obtain discovery of “any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter” of the action. Evidence is relevant if it “tends to cast any light upon the subject of the inquiry.” Bunch v. Artz, 71 Va. Cir. 358 (2006), 2006 WL 2411428, at *7. To be discoverable, information need only be “reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.” Johnson v. Roanoke Mem. Hosps., Inc., 9 Va. Cir. 196 (1987), 1987 WL 494907, at *4 (holding that even inadmissible documents would be discoverable based on any “possible nexus” to the issues).

A. Ms. Heard’s Requests Call for Discoverable Documents.

RFP Nos. 4, 5. Requests 4 and 5 seek documents and communications relating to Mr. Depp’s abuse of drugs and alcohol. In a declaration filed in the Los Angeles Superior Court in May 2016—the truth of which Mr. Depp seeks to litigate in this case—Ms. Heard testified that Mr. Depp’s physical violence towards her was intrinsically linked to his abuse of alcohol and drugs. (See Decl. of A. Heard, May 26, 2016 ¶ 5 (Ex. 34 to Decl. of A. Heard, Apr. 10, 2019 (“2019 Decl.”)); see also 2019 Decl. ¶¶ 3–4, 14–18, 34.)<sup>2</sup> Because Mr. Depp’s substance abuse was “very much a part of the setting in which the charged assaults occurred,” State v. Woodson, 551 A.2d 1187 1191 (R.I. 1988), evidence about it is relevant and must be produced, see, e.g., id. (admitting evidence of drug use where it was “so intertwined with the facts that it became part and parcel of the entire case”); see also Constand v. Cosby, 232 F.R.D. 494, 497 (E.D. Pa. 2006) (holding in a case involving battery and defamation that “any alleged history of . . . use of prescriptions or controlled substances between plaintiff and defendant is core to this action” and allowing discovery). Mr. Depp’s substance abuse may also tend “to cast . . . light” upon the facts

<sup>2</sup> This is unsurprising since there is a “strong and well-documented correlation” between substance abuse and domestic violence. See, e.g., Lisa Lightman & Francine Byrne, Addressing the Co-Occurrence of Domestic Violence and Substance Abuse Lessons from Problem-Solving Courts, 6 J. CENTER FOR FAMILIES, CHILD. & CTS. 53 (2005).

by explaining his shifting patterns of behavior over the duration of his marriage to Ms. Heard, as well as Mr. Depp's own ability to recall the relevant events. See Bunch, 2006 WL 2411428 at *7. Moreover, communications between Mr. Depp and his employees and aides may lead to the identification of people with knowledge of Mr. Depp's substance abuse and the consequences of that abuse for Ms. Heard. See Rule 4:1(b)(1).

RFP No. 38. This request seeks communications with Dr. Kipper that mention Ms. Heard or any of Mr. Depp's other romantic partners. Not only was Dr. Kipper responsible for treating Mr. Depp's substance abuse, but he also witnessed and/or learned about injuries that Ms. Heard suffered at Mr. Depp's hand. (2019 Decl. ¶¶ 9–11 and Ex. 5.) Additionally, Dr. Kipper prescribed Mr. Depp various medications, including to help treat him after he abused Ms. Heard. (2019 Decl. ¶ 11.) Indeed, such medications may have contributed to Mr. Depp's violent, erratic conduct. Communications with Dr. Kipper are therefore highly relevant to the truth of Ms. Heard's 2016 allegations against Mr. Depp. See Pettus v. Gottfried, 269 Va. 69, 77 (2005) (holding "facts learned by [a] physician" about a patient "discoverable and admissible"). Communications mentioning Mr. Depp's other romantic partners will also illuminate Mr. Depp's patterns of behavior, the link between his substance abuse and violence, and Dr. Kipper's efforts to manage his various behaviors and addictions. See Va. R. Sup. Ct. 4:1(b)(1); 2:404(b).

RFP No. 41. This request calls for evidence of Mr. Depp being arrested. Mr. Depp has been arrested multiple times for acts of violence,<sup>3</sup> and Ms. Heard has reason to believe that at least one arrest involved allegations that he assaulted a former romantic partner. Again, evidence that Mr. Depp abused other partners may be relevant and admissible to refuting Mr. Depp's claims, establishing motive and modus operandi, illuminating the link between substance abuse and violence, and identifying witnesses. See Va. R. Sup. Ct. 4:1(b)(1); 2:404(b).

Having put the truth of Ms. Heard’s 2016 allegations about Mr. Depp’s drug- and alcohol-fueled abuse “at issue in the action,” Mr. Depp cannot now deny her all evidence bearing on that question. See City of Portsmouth v. Cilumbrello, 204 Va. 11, 15 (1963).

B. Mr. Depp’s Remaining Objections Lack Merit.

Mr. Depp asserts that certain of the Disputed RFPs “constitute[] an invasion of privacy” (R&Os to RFP Nos. 4, 5, 38, and 41) or infringe upon medical record confidentiality and/or physician–patient privilege (R&Os to RFP Nos. 5 and 38). These objections are meritless.

First, personal privacy and medical confidentiality do not provide a basis to conceal discoverable information. Mr. Depp can be compelled to obtain and produce his medical and hospital records. See 1 BRYSON ON VIRGINIA CIVIL PROCEDURE § 9.08 (2018); Va. Code § 8.01-413. Because Mr. Depp’s “physical or mental condition” is “at issue” in this action, “facts communicated to” and “learned by [Dr. Kipper] in connection with his care” are “discoverable and admissible,” irrespective of any privilege that may otherwise apply. Pettus, 269 Va. at 77; see also Va. Code 8.01-399(B).

Second, it is inequitable, indeed audacious, for Mr. Depp to seek to withhold critical evidence based on privacy objections, while at the same time opposing the entry of a standard protective order similar to the orders he has obtained in many other cases. See Def.’s Ltr., Sept. 10, 2019. Courts routinely protect litigants’ privacy interests by entering appropriately tailored protective orders, not by prohibiting discovery of relevant evidence. See, e.g., Pittston Co. v. U.S., No. 3:97-cv-294, 2002 WL 32158052, at *3 (E.D. Va. Oct. 2, 2002) (a protective order is “essential”); Planicka v. Am. Anesthesiology of Va., P.C., 83 Va. Cir. 482, 483 (Fairfax Cir. Ct. 2011) (addressing “privacy concerns” by placing medical records “under a Protective Order”).

WHEREFORE, Ms. Heard respectfully requests that the Court enter an order compelling Mr. Depp to produce documents responsive to Ms. Heard's Requests, award Ms. Heard her attorney's fees and expenses, and grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Dated this 12th day of September 2019

Respectfully submitted,
Amber L. Heard

EXHIBIT B

2. Plaintiff objects to each and every Request to the extent that the Requests (including the “Definitions” and “Instructions” identified in the Requests) (a) are overly broad or unduly burdensome; (b) are vague, ambiguous, duplicative, cumulative, or do not identify with reasonable particularity the information sought; (c) call for information that is neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence; (d) seek to impose obligations on Plaintiff beyond or inconsistent with those required by Virginia law and the rules of this Court (“Rules”); or (e) purport to seek documents or information not in Plaintiff’s actual possession, custody, or control; any statement herein that Plaintiff will produce documents responsive to a specific Request means that Plaintiff will produce documents located through a reasonable search for documents in its possession, custody, and control.

3. Plaintiff objects to the extent that the discovery sought by the Requests is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive.

4. Plaintiff objects to the extent the discovery sought is unduly burdensome or expensive, taking into account the needs of the case, the amount in controversy, limitations on the parties’ resources, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation.

5. Plaintiff objects to each and every Request, Definition, and Instruction to the extent that they purport to require production of documents at a specified time or place, or in a specified manner. Plaintiff will make documents available in accordance with Rule 4:9 and any agreement among the parties or orders of the Court governing the conduct of discovery.

6. Plaintiff objects to the Requests to the extent that they seek documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, protection, exemption or immunity. Plaintiff will produce only non-privileged information. Inadvertent disclosure of any privileged or otherwise protected documents or information shall not constitute a waiver of any claim of privilege, protection, exemption or immunity. Plaintiff reserves the right to redact documents produced in response to the Requests.

7. Plaintiff objects to the Requests, including the Definitions and Instructions contained therein, to the extent they seek documents or information protected from disclosure as being a trade secret or other confidential business or proprietary information, or documents or information that, if produced or disclosed, would result in the violation of any contractual obligation to third parties.

8. Plaintiff objects to any Request seeking “all” documents on the grounds that Plaintiff cannot guarantee that he has located every single document responsive to a particular Request. Subject to the general objections and any qualifications below, Plaintiff will respond to any Request seeking “all” documents by producing the responsive, non-privileged documents within its possession, custody, and control that can be located after a reasonable search conducted in good faith.

9. Plaintiff reserves the right to produce documents responsive to the Requests on a rolling basis at a time, place, and manner to be agreed on by the parties.

10. Plaintiff objects to the Requests, including the Definitions and Instructions contained therein, to the extent that they are redundant or duplicative of other specific Requests. Where information or a document may be responsive to more than one Request, Plaintiff will provide that information or produce that document only once.

11. Plaintiff objects to the Requests to the extent that they purport to require the identification and/or restoration of any deleted, legacy, backup, or archival data, or otherwise seek the production of any document that is not accessible without undue burden or unreasonable expense.

12. Plaintiff's responses to the Requests are not intended to be, nor shall be deemed, an admission of matters stated, implied, or assumed by any or all of the Requests. In responding to the Requests, Plaintiff neither waives nor intends to waive, but expressly reserves, any and all objections as to the authenticity, relevance, competency, materiality, or admissibility at trial or during any proceeding of any information or documents produced, set forth, or referred to herein.

13. Any response by Plaintiff stating that it will produce documents is not intended as a representation that such documents exist within any requested category or categories but solely as an assertion that Plaintiff will produce (consistent with these Responses and Objections) any non-privileged, responsive documents or information within its actual possession, custody, or control that can be located after a reasonable search conducted in good faith.

14. Plaintiff objects to any factual assumptions, implications, and explicit or implicit characterizations of facts, events, circumstances, or issues in the Requests. Plaintiff's responses herein are not intended to mean that Plaintiff agrees with any factual assumptions, implications, or any explicit or implicit characterization of facts, events, circumstances, or issues in the Requests, and are without prejudice to Plaintiff's right to dispute facts and legal conclusions assumed in the Requests.

15. These objections and responses are based on Plaintiff's present knowledge, information, and belief, and therefore remain subject to change or modification based on further discovery of facts or circumstances that may come to Plaintiff's attention. Plaintiff reserves the right to rely on any facts, documents, evidence, or other contentions that may develop or come to its attention at a later time and to supplement or amend the responses at any time prior to the trial. Plaintiff further reserves the right to raise any additional objections deemed necessary or appropriate in light of any further review.

RESPONSE: No objection.

3. These Requests are continuing in character, so as to require you to promptly amend or supplement your answers if you obtain further or different information. If at any time after compliance with these Requests you should acquire possession, custody, or control of any additional documents within the scope of these Requests you must furnish such documents to the law office of CAMERON/McEVOY, PLLC, 4100 Monument Corner Drive, Suite 420, Fairfax, Virginia 22030, c/o Sean Patrick Roche, Esq., within ten (10) days of their receipt.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this instruction as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it requires production of documents within a certain period of time following receipt. Plaintiff will produce documents at a time and manner on a schedule to be negotiated by the parties.

4. Where knowledge or information in the possession of a party is requested, such request includes knowledge of the party's agent(s), employee(s), and representative(s), including but not limited to non-privileged information known to your attorneys and accountants.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this instruction as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it requires production of documents from individuals not under Plaintiff's control. Plaintiff will produce documents from a limited number of custodians to be negotiated with Defendant in good faith.

5. Whenever appropriate in these Requests, the singular form of a word shall be interpreted as its plural to whatever extent is necessary to bring within the scope of these Requests for Production any information which might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.

RESPONSE: No objection.

6. Unless otherwise indicated, these Requests refer to the time, place, and circumstances of the occurrences mentioned or complained of in the pleadings in this case.

RESPONSE: No objection.

7. All references to an entity include the entity and its agents, officers, employees, representatives, subsidiaries, divisions, successors, predecessors, assigns, parents, affiliates, and unless privileged, its attorneys and accountants.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this instruction as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it requires production of documents from individuals not under Plaintiff's control. Plaintiff will produce documents from a limited number of custodians to be negotiated with Defendant in good faith.

8. If you perceive any ambiguities in a question, instruction, definition, or other aspect of these discovery requests, set forth the matter deemed ambiguous and the construction used in answering.

RESPONSE: No objection.

9. If you state a claim of privilege as to any of your responses to the Requests for Production, state the basis for the privilege, specify the privilege claimed, and include in your answer sufficient information to permit the Court to make an informed ruling on the claim of privilege. If the claim relates to a privileged document, state the date, person or persons who prepared or participated in preparing the document, the name and address of any person to whom the document was shown or sent, the general subject matter of the document, the present or last known location and custodian of the original of the document, and the basis for the claim of privilege with respect to the document. If the claim of privilege relates to a communication, state the date(s), place(s) and person(s) involved in the communication, the subject matter of the communication, and the basis for the claim of privilege with respect to that communication. Reliance on any claim of privilege is subject to the Rules of this Court, including the production of a privileged log.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this instruction as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it requires Plaintiff to produce a privilege log in a specific manner at a specific time. Plaintiff will produce a privilege log at a time and in a manner to be negotiated with Defendant in good faith.

10. If you perceive any discovery request to be overly broad, unduly burdensome, or objectionable for any other reason, respond to the fullest extent possible and clearly note any objection so that the Court will be permitted to make an informed ruling on the objection.

RESPONSE: No objection.

Definitions

a Communication. The term “communication” means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise); it includes all conversations, discussions, letter, telegrams, memoranda, electronic mail, and any other transmission of information in any form, either oral, written, or electronic.

b       Document. The term “document” is defined in its broadest terms currently recognized. The term shall include, without limitations: any written or other compilation of information (whether printed, handwritten, recorded, or encoded, produced, reproduced, or reproducible by any other process), drafts (revisions or finals), original or preliminary notes, and summaries of other documents, communications of any type (inter-agency/inter-company, intra-agency/intra-company), computer tape, computer files, and electronic mail (e-mail) including all of their contents and attached files. The term “document” shall also include but not be limited to: correspondence, memoranda, contractual documents, specifications, drawings, photographs, images, aperture cards, notices of revisions, test reports, inspection reports, evaluations, technical reports, schedules, agreements, reports, studies, analyses, projections, forecasts, summaries, records of conversations or interviews, minutes or records of conferences or meetings, manuals, handbooks, brochures, pamphlets, advertisements, circulars, press releases, financial statements, calendars, diaries, trip reports, etc. A draft of a non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks to impose burdens beyond what are required by the Rules.

c       Correspondence. The term “correspondence” means any document(s) and/or communication(s) sent to or received from another entity and/or person.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it is duplicative of the terms Document and Communication, and to the extent that it seeks to impose burdens beyond what are required by the Rules.

d       Identify (with respect to persons). When referring to a person, to “identify” means to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name, present or last known business address and telephone number and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known home address and telephone number. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this definition, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person.

RESPONSE: No objection.

e Identify (with respect to documents). When referring to documents, to “identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type and title of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

RESPONSE: No objection.

f Person. The term “person” is defined as any natural person, business, company, partnership, legal entity, governmental entity, and/or association.

RESPONSE: No objection.

g Concerning. The term “concerning” means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing, or constituting.

RESPONSE: No objection.

h Including. The term “including” means including but not limited to.

RESPONSE: No objection.

i And/or. The use of “and/or” shall be interpreted in every instance both conjunctively and disjunctively in order to bring within the scope of these discovery requests any information which might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.

RESPONSE: No objection.

j        Defendant and/or Ms. Heard. The terms “Defendant” and/or “Ms. Heard” refer to Defendant Amber Laura Heard, including her agents, representatives, employees, assigns, and unless privileged, her attorneys and accountants.

RESPONSE: No objection.

m        Declaration. The term “Declaration” shall mean the Declaration filed by Plaintiff in this matter as Exhibit 1 to Plaintiff’s Opposition to the Motion to Dismiss.

RESPONSE: No objection.

n        Romantic Partners. The term “Romantic Partners” shall mean any persons you have touched in a sexual manner in the past ten (10) years, meaning: (a) direct contact between any part of your body and another person’s genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks; or (b) direct contact between any part of a third party’s body and your genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff objects to this definition as overly broad and unduly burdensome, vague and ambiguous to the extent it seeks to impose burdens beyond those required by the Rules. This term is overly broad in its ten year scope, and vague and ambiguous in its use of the terms “direct contact” and “sexual manner.” Plaintiff further objects to this term to the extent that it is inflammatory and harassing, assumes facts not in evidence, lacks foundation, calls for a medical and/or legal conclusion and seeks information unrelated to this case and that is unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Plaintiff will agree to meet and confer with Defendant regarding this term.

o You and/or Your. The terms “You” and/or “Your” refer to the recipient(s) of these discovery requests, as well as all persons and entities over which said recipient has “control” as understood by the Rules of this Court.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

1. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS from March of 2016 to present relating to the preparation of a declaration, affidavit, or other statement regarding MS. HEARD, regardless of whether or not a declaration, affidavit, or other statement was actually executed.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

Plaintiff also objects to this Request as vague and ambiguous to the extent that it uses the terms “tabloids, celebrity publications, gossip publications, and social media” because Defendants did not define these terms or provide a list of media outlets.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

3. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and any person employed by YOU or working on your behalf pertaining to any acts of violence, or attempted acts of violence, by YOU or MS. HEARD.

Plaintiff further objects to this Request to the extent that it is intended to harass Plaintiff, and constitutes an invasion of privacy.

4. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and any person employed by YOU or working on your behalf pertaining to the use of narcotics by YOU or MS. HEARD from 2013 to present.

Plaintiff further objects to this Request as unlikely to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence and that it seeks documents and communications that are irrelevant, immaterial, or unnecessary to the issues in this Action. Plaintiff further objects to this Request on the grounds that it is intended to harass Plaintiff, and constitutes an invasion of privacy.

In light of the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will not be producing documents in response to this Request.

5. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS pertaining to any treatment for alcohol or drug use or abuse by YOU or MS. HEARD from 2013 to present.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, to the extent that it seeks documents and communications from 2013 to the present. harass Plaintiff, and constitutes an invasion of privacy. Plaintiff further objects to this Request to the extent it calls for confidential personal, business, financial, medical or other proprietary information protected by law, including information that may be protected by the physician-patient privilege and/or the Privacy Rule or the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPPA”). Plaintiff further objects on the ground that this Request calls for a medical and/or legal conclusion.

In light of the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will not be producing documents in response to this Request.

6. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and any person employed by YOU or working on your behalf pertaining to YOUR travel between May 20, 2014 and May 26, 2014.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. Mr. Depp further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents neither relevant to the subject matter of this litigation nor calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

7. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS between YOU and any person employed by YOU or working on your behalf pertaining to YOU or MS. HEARD in Australia during March of 2015.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. Mr. Depp further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents neither relevant to the subject matter of this litigation nor calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

8. All non-privileged DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS pertaining to MS. HEARD or YOUR relationship with MS. HEARD created, edited, sent, or received between May 15, 2016 and June 30, 2016.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

9. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS supporting YOUR contention that “The op-ed’s clear implication that Mr. Depp is a domestic abuser,” as alleged in paragraph 3 of YOUR complaint.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this Request to the extent that it calls for a legal conclusion.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

10. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS supporting YOUR contention that “Ms. Heard’s false implication prejudiced Mr. Depp in his career as a film actor and incalculably (and immediately) damaged his reputation as a public figure,” as alleged in paragraph 4 of YOUR COMPLAINT.

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection. Plaintiff further objects to this Request to the extent it is intended to harass Plaintiff, and constitutes an invasion of privacy. Plaintiff further objects to this Request to the extent it seeks documents and communications already in the possession of Defendant, and for which the burden of production on Defendant is less than that of Plaintiff.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

47. All DOCUMENTS and COMMUNICATIONS pertaining to YOUR contention that “the story that Savannah was merely her ‘friend’ was a lie Ms. Heard, an ‘immigration activist,’ fraudulently wrote to Homeland Security to get what she wanted; Ms. Heard’s assistant Savannah McMillen was illegally working in America, for Ms. Heard, as a simple Google search or paycheck in my possession would reveal,” as referenced in paragraph 40 of YOUR DECLARATION.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request, if any, that are located after a reasonable search, and in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties.

48. All DOCUMENTS obtained by way of subpoena, threat of subpoena, and/or voluntarily in relation to this litigation.

RESPONSE:

In addition to the foregoing General Objections and Objections to Definitions and Instructions, Plaintiff objects to this Request as premature, and expressly reserves his ability to supplement his response to this Request. Plaintiff further objects to this Request as overly broad and unduly burdensome, and to the extent that it seeks the production of documents or communications protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege, immunity, or protection.

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing objections, Plaintiff will produce non-privileged documents responsive to this Request in accordance with a schedule to be agreed upon by the parties and entered by the Court. For the avoidance of doubt, Plaintiff does not intend to produce any documents in response to this Request at this time.

Subject: Deficiencies in Depp's Responses and Objections to Defendant's First Request for Production of Documents and Things

Dear Ben,

We have received Plaintiff's Responses and Objections to Defendant's First Request for Production of Documents and Things, dated September 3, 2019 ("R&Os"). We intend to address the bulk of Plaintiff's objections set forth in the R&Os in writing in due course.

However, we noted that Plaintiff does not intend to produce any documents whatsoever in response to Request Nos. 4, 5, 15, 38, and 41. We maintain that these were reasonable requests and that Plaintiff's objections, and refusal to produce any documents in response, are improper. Can you please confirm whether Plaintiff will withdraw these objections and agree to produce responsive documents or whether you intend to maintain these objections as currently stated in the R&Os?

I would appreciate hearing back from you, Rob or someone else on your team by close of business Tuesday, September 10. We are available to discuss in the meantime. If Plaintiff intends to maintain these objections, or if we do not hear back, we intend to move to compel production of documents responsive to the above-mentioned requests. Defendant also reserves her right to file additional motions to compel as appropriate if we are unable to reach agreement with respect to Defendant's other requests.

Thanks,

Josh
