

Ad Hoc Police Practices Review Commission

Communications Subcommittee

July 20, 2015 7:00 pm

Fairfax County Government Center, Board conference room – Room 152

Notetaker: TBD

1. Approval of minutes from the June 13 meeting
2. Discussion led by Lt. Col. Tom Ryan, Deputy Chief of Police:
 - a. Update on FCPD community outreach
 - b. Responding to the discussions and recommendations of this subcommittee, FCPD has moved forward with a proposal for a civilian director for the police department's public information office. To ensure recruitment and selection of the most qualified professional communicator through use of written, well-defined criteria and standards, Chief Ryan will present the draft position requirements for our review and comment.
3. Final discussion about the subcommittee's report/recommendations - with the goal to reach consensus and adopt a final report for presentation to the commission on July 27, 2015. Some edits to the draft report will be necessary after the meeting concludes to incorporate all approved additions/changes; once completed, the final report will be distributed to subcommittee members before it is presented to the full commission.
4. Final review and close-out of committee's scope-of-work and evaluation of subcommittee work and process.
5. All are invited to the presentation of the Communications Subcommittee's final report and recommendations to the Ad Hoc Police Practices Review Commission: July 27, 7:30 p.m. in the government center, conference rooms 2/3
