Chantilly, VA 20151-2295

Leadership Coaching provides a very effective way to leverage the existing strengths of the people you work with and build high-performance teams. In this session, you will learn effective and inspiring skills to lead others in performance improvement, on-the-job development and career growth. You will understand how to better unlock the potential of others through effective questioning and attentive listening. You will be able to analyze performance opportunities with your staff to identify that they need to do to improve their skills and turn opportunities into achievements.

For Executive Directors, Leaders, Managers and Supervisors.
