

Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Environmental Committee

Moving Forward with the Solid Waste Management Program

Department of Public Works and Environmental Services Working for You!

A Fairfax County, VA, publication
May 24, 2016

Glass Recycling – Initial Step to Move Forward

Installed at I-66 Equipment built to be loaded by hand,
easy to do

Aggregate Fabricated flooring and tile
Sandblasting
Road surfaces

Glass Recycling – Next Step to Move Forward

Planned for I-95

Coordinate with county agencies for use in county projects

Potential uses: drainage, pipe bedding, filter media for wastewater treatment, LEED points in construction projects

Cathode Ray Tubes – Moving from Disposal to Recycling

Staff proposal to prohibit CRT disposal

Implementing
state legislation exists to permit prohibition

Significant pollution prevention program for Fairfax County

Compost – Moving Forward

Large cafeterias
Restaurants
Grocery stores

Pre-consumer food waste and yard waste

Eventual inclusion of post-consumer
food waste

Three off-site facilities identified eligible to accept
food waste

Use product in:
county
landscaping & maintenance
construction projects
stormwater rehabilitation
projects

Recycling Drop off Centers - Moving Forward

60 % reduction in quantity delivered to drop off centers in past decade

Increased instances of trash being dumped

Plastic Bag Bans for Yard Waste

Additional Information

For additional information, please contact

John Kellas, Deputy Director, Public Works and Environmental Services
John.Kellas@fairfaxcounty.gov

Pamela Gratton, Director, Recycling, Engineering and Environmental Compliance Pamela.Gratton@fairfaxcounty.gov

www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dpwes

