Come Let Your Voice Be Heard
Saturday, March 20, 2010 | 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

The Women Voices Forum is an opportunity for the residents of Fairfax County to engage the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, the Commission for Women, key experts, and community opinion leaders in intergenerational conversations.

The WVF provides an environment where the participants:

- Can voice their opinions.
- Hear the responses from elected and appointed officials, experts and community opinion leaders.
- Discuss the top priority issues identified by YOU the community: Affordable Housing, Affordable Child Care, Health Care, Education, Family and Career Balance, and Domestic Violence.
- Address issues that influence the decisions on policies that impact women and girls in the county.

- Town Hall Session
- Conversations with Community Legislators
- Discussion Panels and Informed Speakers
- Interactive Information Fair
- Networking
- Food
