

Helpful Publications

- AARP: “GIC VOICE” Grandparent Information Center (GIC) Voice Newsletter – May be accessed electronically on the Web, or mailed directly to the home. 1-888-OUR-AARP (1-888-687-2277); Fax 1-202-434-6474; www.aarp.org/families/grandparents or e-mail gic@aarp.org.
- Celebrating Special Children: A Resource Guide for Families of Children with Special Needs in the Commonwealth of Virginia – Provides sources of information and support for caretakers of children with various special needs. For copies, fax: 703-503-1707; E-mail: Lnelsonva@earthlink.net. Published by: Celebrating Special Children, Inc., 7921 Jones Branch Road, McLean, VA 22102.
- Generations United Newsletter – Published by Generations United, this publication provides information to grandparents and other relatives raising children. Call 202-289-3979.
- Guide to Retirement Living – This guide in print and on the Internet is a complete listing of all senior housing, assisted living, nursing homes, home health care services, and professional resources in Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, Washington D.C., Pennsylvania and Delaware. Can be accessed electronically on the Web, or mailed directly to the home. 1-800-394-9990; Web site: www.guidetoretirementliving.com.
- Grandparents Caring For Grandchildren: A Resource Guide – Published by Virginia Department on Aging. 1-800-552-3402 (Nationwide Voice/TTY); www.vda.virginia.gov.
- Low and Moderate Income Housing Guide – Prepared by the Fairfax County Department of Housing and Community Development. Provides a list of properties affordable to low and moderate income households and a summary of information on the Fairfax County Public Housing and Section 8 waiting list system. Also provides a list of helpful hints to aid the client searching for housing. Available online at: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/gov/rha/housingguide.pdf. Individual copies can be mailed to those without Internet access. Call 703-222-0880 for English and other languages, except Spanish. For Spanish, call 703-631-3366; TTY 703-803-7914.
- Parktakes – Published by the Fairfax County Department of Parks and Recreation. Provides a class catalogue of all classes offered during each enrollment season. May be accessed electronically on the web or mailed directly to the home. 703-324-8680, Virginia Relay 711; Web site: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks.
- The Golden Gazette – Published by the Fairfax Area Agency on Aging, primarily for senior citizens and caregivers. Contact the office at 703-324-5633, TTY: 703-449-1186, to be put on the free mailing list.
- Caregiver’s Corner Online – A free monthly electronic newsletter from the Fairfax Family Caregiver Support Program which provides news and information for informal “family” caregivers. To subscribe, please visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/email/lists. Look under the heading Health and Human Services.
- Fairfax Area Disability Services E-News Caregiver Corner Online – A free electronic newsletter from the Fairfax Area Disability Services Board. www.fairfaxcounty.gov/email/lists. Look under Health and Human Services.