

JOB CORNER

FAIRFAX COUNTY

didn't know what I wanted to do or where to start, but I knew I needed to get a job. The staff at Job Corner got to know me and then taught me how to get a job where I could do something I liked to do. Now, I'm getting paid to be a dance teacher for kids, and I love it!

The Job Corner is also helping me finish high school soon.

They really care about me achieving my goals. ”

What is the Job Corner?

The Job Corner is a helpful and friendly place where youth ages 14-21 can get help finding a job, exploring careers, and learning about options for life after high school. Employment assistance is provided at no charge, as well as many other resources to help young people succeed.

You can get assistance with filling out applications, developing a resume, preparing for interviews, dressing for success and much more. There are also fun monthly events such as game nights, talent battles and other celebrations to recognize the efforts of young job seekers and workers who are keeping a steady job or attending school.

Learn what you need to succeed in the work force!

What will you find at the Job Corner?

- Professional staff who can coach you on how to find and keep a job you like.
- Countless job leads and information on job fairs.
- Career assessments that show you your strengths and interests.
- Apprenticeship, college and job training resources.
- Connections to other programs and positive people to help you achieve your goals.
- Computers with free Internet access.

For Youth,
