Write a response to today's meeting, taking into account the following questions:

1. Prior to today's meeting, what would you have identified as the most pressing issues facing those living in poverty? Did today's activity change your perceptions?
2. What role did you play in the simulation? What emotions did you feel as you progressed through the "weeks" of this activity? How did you spend your time (where did you visit the most and/or what distractions were there?)
3. What were the most difficult tasks that you faced?
4. Do you have any suggestions for how these tasks/anxieties may be alleviated "in real life"?
5. What will you remember most about today's simulation?
