

Reston Master Plan

Planning Principles

December 14, 2010

Reston Master Plan

Outline

Vision Sub-committee:

- John Bowman
- John Carter, Co-Chair
- Robert Simon
- Van Foster
- Milton Matthews
- Susan Mochenhaupt
- William Penniman
- Judith Pew
- Terri Phillips
- Joe Stowers
- Kohann Williams, Co-Chair

Reston Master Plan

Principles

- Strive for excellence in planning, urban design and architecture
- Plan for environmental sustainability and green technology
- Balance land use with infrastructure
- Concentrate development near transit
- Maintain the Reston Town Center as an active central place
- Transform the rail-transit corridor

Reston Master Plan

Principles

Create, augment and enhance the village centers

Maintain the character of the existing residential neighborhoods

Provide diverse housing opportunities

Connect the Reston community

Reston Master Plan

Principles

Provide high quality, active public open space

Emphasize transit oriented development

Address economic needs

Encourage public participation