

Steering Sub-committee Meeting - 02-16-2011
Vision and Planning Principles Discussion

Staff Alternative Planning Principle 10 -

10. Protect public participation in planning and zoning

Local participation should remain a hallmark of the planning and zoning processes as Reston continues to evolve as a complete community for the 21st century over several decades. The cumulative impacts of development and redevelopment should be continually assessed and evaluated.