

Draft Work Plan for Wiehle Avenue Subcommittee

June 9 – Public comments

Organization

Identification of issues to be addressed and discussion of work plan

Presentation from Comstock

Initial discussion by committee members of vision for station area.

June 16 –

- Presentations by property owners/developers around Wiehle Station concerning their visions and plans, potential for coordinated development, likely impediments to high quality development, traffic issues, networks for cars/pedestrians/bicycles, expectations on timing, impacts of Wiehle development on nearby residential areas and the rest of Reston, relationship of Wiehle development to development near other stations, including Tysons.
- Public comment on same issues.
- Committee discussion concerning issues, opportunities and concerns raised by presentations, general comments on development guidelines.

June 23 –

- Public input.
- Presentation(s) on traffic issues and RMAG recommendations to address and answer questions concerning traffic issues, strategies for mitigating traffic, other transportation issues (including parking), other infrastructure needs.
- Solicit representatives from County, RA and others to address and answer questions concerning parks, recreation, cultural, educational opportunities and issues.
- Committee discussion concerning traffic issues, traffic mitigation, parking, and open space, recreation and cultural issues, plus continuation of discussion of issues from last meeting.

June 30 –

- Public input.
- Committee discussion (both generally and by sub-unit) and identification of agreements/disagreements concerning appropriate densities, heights, mixes of uses, interconnections among parcels, requirements for setbacks, open space, preservation of natural areas, and pedestrian/bicycle pathways in corridor, and incentives for builders.

July 7 –

- Public input.
- Committee discussion of unresolved issues from prior meetings and first draft of recommendations to Task Force.

July 14 –

- Public input.
- Committee discussion of issues from prior meetings and finalization of recommendations to Task Force.