

NOVA: Northern Virginia's Community College

July 21, 2010
Wiehle Avenue Subcommittee
Reston Association

NOVA is...

The second largest community college in the United States and one of the most diverse colleges in the US with students representing over 150 nationalities.

Over 72,500 students projected to be enrolled annually in credit courses in 2009-2010

- Largest institution of higher education in the Commonwealth of Virginia – Over twice as large as the largest state university (GMU)
- One of 50 largest higher education institutions in U.S.

- NOVA'S increasing enrollment and projections:

Spring 2009 – 6% increase

Fall 2009 – 12% increase

Spring 2010 – 20% increase

- For Fall 2009, online enrollment grew 29%. If this was a campus, it would be our third largest campus.
- On average, one out of every five Northern Virginia public high school graduates attends NOVA.

For more and more people, NOVA represents their personal economic recovery plan. Today's funding cuts threaten tomorrow's jobs. Many of today's most promising career fields, including medicine, energy and engineering require the technical training community colleges offer in real time.

NOVA's Mission

Low cost

Less than $3,200 for full-time students

NOVA's Mission

PROVIDING AN AFFORDABLE PATH

“...students are rethinking plans to attend expensive private colleges and universities. High unemployment rates and decimated stock portfolios have driven families to find less-expensive alternatives.”

The Washington Post

GETTING STUDENTS READY TO WORK

“Community colleges...are ... able to adapt quickly in changing winds. They often partner with local businesses and can generate continuing-education courses mid-semester in response to industry needs, getting students in and out and ready to work – fast.”

TIME

Degrees and Certificates:

- 77 two-year degree programs (A.A., A.S., A.A.A., and A.A.S.)
