This is an example of the earliest system used in Fairfax County. Beginning in January 1950, parcel maps were drawn on linen. Parcels were plotted from deeds, aerial photos, and field investigation. The large sheets were soon to be cut into four panels.

By 1956 the original Tax Maps were subdivided into four quadrants, in much the same way that USGS had subdivided the early 15 Minute Quads during the 1940s and 50s.

The neatlines of tax maps are subdivisions of the USGS 7.5 Minute grid, six maps east to west and nine north to south.

In 1968 the linen drawings were converted to mylar base. These mylar maps carried added detail and were much less susceptible to shrinking and stretching.

Between 1972 and 1987 the County remapped all the parcels to conform with national map accuracy standards.

New monuments were set and verbal descriptions on deeds were carefully plotted and reconciled.
