

Victim Access Workgroup Agenda

Tuesday, April 16, 2024

8:00-9:00am

Fairfax County Courthouse

Room 201.1

Members in person: Judge Susan Stoney (chair), Nora Mahoney (co-chair), Judge Divani Nadaraja, Ayaan Ali, Kellie Cook, Kacey Kirkland, Stephanie Romonchuk, Tina Spurlock, and Brittany Vera

Members present virtually: Fazia Deen and Cannon Han (Technical Assistance provider)

I. Welcome

Nora Mahoney opened the meeting and group members introduced themselves given it was Judge Nadaraja's first in-person meeting.

II. Content review: Service of the PO

The group reviewed the section of the protective order process that focuses on service of the protective order. The group revised the document to clarify and shorten the document while ensuring it was easily understood. The group removed extraneous information about the process of serving the protective order.

III. Public comment

There were no members of the public in attendance at the meeting.

IV. Next meeting planning

- Suggestion to have QR codes for people to have to scan to access the content
- Consistent signage that could be produced for victim service providers to have in their offices
- Something to include in email signatures
- Posters of some kind

Discussed the process of starting GDC PO process and differences and similarities.

V. Adjourn
