

Franconia District Supervisor's Office Internships

The office of Franconia District Supervisor Rodney Lusk is now accepting applications to fill Winter Intern positions. Internships are open to high school, undergraduate and graduate students. These in-person internship opportunities are for highly motivated students who are interested in local government and would like to learn how a Fairfax County Supervisor's office runs. Interns will be responsible for assisting staff on a variety of tasks and projects which can be tailored to their interests. Examples may include:

- Constituent casework
- Land use projects
- Community outreach
- Communications and social media management
- Event coordination
- Front office responsibilities
- Administrative tasks
- Other duties as assigned

We are looking for interns who can commit to working 10-20 hours per week in our office for a period of 8-12 weeks. These internships can be flexible based on the intern's needs, interests, and availability. To apply, please send a resume and cover letter to
