

Roberto Quinones

Roberto started his career in the commercial world with AT&T and moved to the non-profit world with AARP. Throughout his career he has worked with numerous non-profits to improve their operations, community outreach, and effectiveness in serving diverse populations. He is currently the Executive Director of the Tortilla Industry Association and sits on the board of the National Hispanic Council on Aging.

"I look forward to helping Fairfax better serve residents of all backgrounds and LTCCC develop public-private partnerships that proactively solve community needs."
