

Judy Seiff

As the retired Administrator of Temple Rodef Shalom and a current Board Member of Chesterbrook Residences, Inc. (the first mixed income Assisted Living facility in Fairfax County) I bring my knowledge of both the faith-based and secular communities to the Council and to the Access Committee.

Early in my residency in Fairfax County, I was an advocate for the development of programs which served of the needs of young children. Now, almost four decades later, there is a similar void of services to meet the needs of our expanding senior and disabled adult population. It is a privilege to serve on the Council which hopes to make Fairfax a leader in providing better services for the elderly and disabled.
