Neighborhood-based Service Organizations Designed By 50+ Are Sweeping the Nation!

From Boston to Berkeley, people 50+ are transforming their neighborhoods into the supportive communities they've always wanted and now, for a host of reasons, require. While no two neighborhood service organizations are alike, most offer access to a range of services (from purchasing theater tickets to raking leaves) that make growing older in the 'burbs a breeze. Best of all, they build stronger, more engaged communities that work as well for adults with disabilities, multi-tasking moms and teenagers looking for a close-to home volunteer experience.

Speakers from the pioneering Beacon Hill Village and six other neighborhood organizations will discuss how they organized and the types of services they offer. Join us and learn how to reinvent your neighborhood!!

"... fulfilling opportunities for engagement will ensure a vibrant community."
