Consumer Advisory Council

Would you like to use your present or past experience with homelessness to help prevent others from enduring some of the hardships you faced?

The CAC is an advisory group that will give input on policy recommendations about local efforts to prevent and end homelessness. Your responsibility, if selected, will be to attend quarterly evening meetings of the CAC and positively contribute to the work of the council.

If interested, complete and return the application by Tuesday, June 30.

To protect your confidentiality we do not recommend using email to submit your application. Please either fax it to (703) 653-1365, mail or bring it to the location below, or give it to the non-profit partner organization that provided it. If neither option will work for you, please call (703) 324-9408 to make arrangements for submission.
