Dear Hunter Mill Friends,

With all that is happening late summer, a local staycation is all the more attractive. You can be glad you are here and a quick scan of this month's area offerings reveals just how alive and diverse the activities actually are.

Have a special occasion in August? Perfect - celebrate with a fun/lovely dinner at a restaurant you have wanted to try during Restaurant Week. Eateries all over the area are participating and at very affordable prices. There are several establishments in our community available for your introductory meal or maybe try a favorite again.

Perhaps you prefer baseball. The easiest way to get to the Nationals Baseball Stadium is by public transportation – try the new Silver Line. The Navy Yard Metro stop is about a 1/2 block from the main entrance. From the Silver line transfer to the Green Line and travel to the Navy Yard station, about half a block away to the ballpark. With the added bonus of free parking in all Metro lots – Wiehle included - on Saturdays, Sundays and Federal holidays, what are you waiting for?

You could launch a canoe or hike a trail at River Bend Park- 8700 Potomac Hills Street, Great Falls, VA 22066 ; 703-759-9018. If you are so inclined, join a kayak tour following your picnic. The ever changing Potomac River provides a great chance to fish and so does Lake Fairfax Park.

With our typically hot weather in August, a close-to-home tube ride on Rattlesnake River, at the Water Mine Family Swimmin' Hole at Lake Fairfax Park has a lot of appeal. Bonus: after 5pm, there is a reduced rate! Maybe golf is your thing and Lake Fairfax has that too - Frisbee golf that is.

Let's not forget the free outdoor concerts at Reston Town Center Pavilion, Lake Anne Plaza, Vienna Town Green and Frying Pan Farm Park. By the way, when you are visiting Frying Pan, be sure to swing by the Kidwell Farm to get a true farm experience here, complete with sheep, cattle, pigs, chickens, and learn about rural, agricultural life in the 1940's. May I suggest you hop a hay ride to experience the woods? It's all very interesting with insights about the good ole days.

For the Board of Supervisors, we typically don't meet during August. Which is truly a blessing this year as my staff and I are planning and organizing the move into our new office space in the early fall, probably October. Our new address is 1801 Cameron Glen Drive, about 300 feet from current site. Exciting and busy times, to be sure. I just hope we can take some advantage of our own August staycation.

As always, I welcome your comments and observations.

Collect for Kids School Supply Drive

Collect for Kids, a coordinated school supply drive to benefit needy Fairfax County Public Schools students is underway to ensure every student starts their school year well-equipped and well-supplied. Your contributions are needed to support these students. Donors may contribute backpacks, calculators, or cash that will be used to purchase as many supplies as possible.

- Cash donations: by partnering with Office Depot and Kitz for Kids, school supplies can be purchased in bulk, translating a $1 donation into $3 worth of school supplies. A $10 donation can fill a backpack with FCPS-approved supplies. Donations are accepted online or at any Apple Federal Credit Union, or Northwest Federal Credit Union branch.
- Backpack donations: Donations of new backpacks can be brought to any of the Apple FCU or Northwest FCU branch, or Cornerstones, or other partner sites.
- Calculators donations: Calculators are also collected at the above sites. Preferred models are the TI 30Xa Solar School Edition, or the TI-84 Series calculators, but other models may be donated.

Champions of Character in Sports Awards Nominations Due

Fairfax County Athletic Council (FCAC) is accepting nominations for the annual Fairfax County Champions of Character Awards program. The FCAC invites you to nominate outstanding youth and adults who have demonstrated extraordinary service in the sports community while modeling the basic traits of good character: trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and citizenship.

Categories for nominations are athlete, coach, and parents. Nomination form and information is available on the Champions of Character website - <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/nec/athletics/champofchar.htm>. The deadline for nominations is August 31st.

Youth Suicide Prevention

The Fairfax-Falls Church Community Services Board (CSB) has launched two new resources for community members to use to help prevent suicide. CSB has partnered with CrisisLink to make it possible for anyone in our community, all ages, to text their concerns to CrisisLink for prompt response, counsel, and referral. The free, confidential CrisisLink's Text Hotline is at 703-940-0888.

Fairfax County's Youth Suicide Prevention Training includes three online simulations that prepare educators and other adults in our community to:

- Recognize when a young person is exhibiting signs of psychological distress, and
- Talk with the young person to be able to connect them with appropriate support.

The online trainings allow participants to enter a virtual environment and assume the role of an adult interacting with a young person. These online simulations are interactive and dynamic with actions you choose to move the scenario along, and participants receive real-time feedback on how well they are doing. Participants learn how to differentiate between "normal" and "at-risk" behavior and how to begin a conversation about the topic of mental distress. The courses are offered to anyone in the community, free of charge. Each training can be done in more than one sitting. Both courses are available at <http://fairfax.kognito.com/>

at-risk At-Risk for Middle School and At-Risk for High School are each one-hour online simulations for concerned adults that support youth who exhibit signs of psychological distress, including thoughts of suicide.

Step In Speak Up! Step In, Speak Up! is a 30 minute online training to help concerned adults support students struggling due to harassment or exclusion related to sexual identity, sexual orientation, or other differences.

Transportation

Fairfax County Department of Transportation Pedestrian Infrastructure Requests

Fairfax County Department of Transportation (FCDOT) is proud to introduce its first interactive web map where you, the resident, can show us where you think pedestrian safety can be improved. This tool is an extension of our existing process that allows residents to e-mail FCDOT and request sidewalk and trail connections, curb ramps, improved signage, and other strategies to improve pedestrian safety.

This web map continues FCDOT's initiative to be more open and interactive with the public, that has been established through our Countywide Dialogue on Transportation surveys and web maps, including the Capital Projects web map, which allows the public to keep track of the location and progress of transportation improvement projects in Fairfax County. If you would like to submit a request for pedestrian improvements without using this map, you can submit your request online. The web map can be viewed at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/fcdot/pedestrian/map.htm>.

Hunter Mill District Transportation Advisory Committee

The Hunter Mill District Transportation Committee (HMD TAC) will be hosting their quarterly meeting on September 17 at the North County Governmental Building. Meetings begin at 8:00am. HMD TAC discusses the transportation issues affecting the Hunter Mill District with various transportation staff and agencies. Meetings are open to the public. If there are any questions, please contact Paul Davis at 703-478-0283.

Opening of Silver Line in the Hunter Mill District

On July 26, 2014, Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) opened the Silver Line Metrorail and the new Metrorail stations for service. This occasion was marked by a ribbon cutting ceremony with guests such as Governor Terry McAuliffe, Congressman Gerry Connolly, Chairman Sharon Bulova, Robert E. Simon, and the commuters who came to celebrate the moment. (See photo below.) The prior week, Fairfax County celebrated the completion of the Wiehle-Reston East Metrorail garage and transit facility. The new transit facility houses public parking spaces for the Metrorail station, a bus transfer station, and a secure bicycle locker room. The facility was constructed with assistance from Comstock Partners through a Public-Private partnership. Comstock will be developing a mixed use development with residential and office buildings on the site.

We still have some work to do to improve access to the rail stations and along the bus routes. Those projects have been identified and are in various stages of completion. My office will continue to work with Fairfax County Department of Transportation and Virginia Department of Transportation on making progress on these projects to ensure safe routes to and from the rail stations for vehicles, bicycle and pedestrians.

Hi-Ho Silver Line ! Community Champions Honored

In addition to the ribbon cutting and first train rides for the opening of the Silver Line Metro service, Supervisor Hudgins partnered with Marymount University and Northern Virginia Community College for a small gathering of local heroes on Friday, July 25. The honorees were community members who had volunteered their time to serve on various committees, study groups, task force, and other efforts that lead to the eventual opening of the Silver Line.

Supervisor Hudgins also remembered several community leaders who had worked on the effort to bring rail to Dulles but were no longer with us to celebrate the opening. Their contributions will be enjoyed by the community for years to come.

- Anne Rodriguez was a passionate advocate of the arts. She served on the Silver Line Phase 1 “Art in Transit” panel which selected all the public art pieces for the Phase 1 stations.
- Stuart Rakoff, a longtime Restonian and advocate for sustainable communities, provided input on the planning process through the community task forces, along with his involvement with Reston Interfaith.
- Dave Edwards was an urban planner and very instrumental in the development of public facilities in Reston. Dave also served on the Hunter Mill District Transportation Advisory Council.
- William Nicosin was the first direct of HUD’s New Community Assistance Program, served on the Reston Association Board and committees, and was a vocal supporter of the development of the “new town” Reston.
- Patrick Kane was an innovative thinker and community planner, founding member of the Reston Chamber of Commerce, and worked on planning and transportation issues for Tysons, Herndon, and Reston.
- Ed Tennyson was a transit advocate and involved with transportation decisions as a member of the Fairfax County Transportation Advisory Board. Ed was a ferocious supporter of transit in the community.

Thanks to everyone who contributed to the festivities! And, special thanks to our Community Champions in white hats for all their efforts bringing Metro to our district.

Volunteers Needed for Works Sunday

For the 19th year in a row, the call has gone out for volunteers for “Works Sunday” a cornucopia of charitable projects taking place on or about Sunday, August 17th, and aimed at the helping the hungry, the hurting and the homeless in the Reston and Herndon areas.

Works Sunday 2014 is sponsored by some 10 local congregations - Jewish, Christian, Muslim and Buddhist - as a celebration of shared ethical values, and a demonstration of their strong commitment to community service and social justice. Works Sunday is open to all - volunteers need not belong to any congregation in order to participate. Works Sunday projects are local (in Reston/Herndon) and low-impact with most project shifts lasting only one to two hours. This year’s projects include varied outreach events for residents of local nursing homes, a blood drive, the collection of clothing and personal items for the homeless, food drive, and light yard and maintenance work at group homes.
