PRESENTATIONS:

- 10:30 a.m. - Resources for Senior Adults: Donita Williams, MSW, from the Department of Family Services will be on hand to discuss the services the agency offers to caregivers, seniors, and people with disabilities. Learn about transportation options, Meals on Wheels, volunteer opportunities, home care options, and other services.
- 11 a.m. - Wills and Powers of Attorney: An attorney from the Estate Planning and Elder Law Firm will give a presentation on what documents senior adults should have in place before they are needed.
- 11:30 a.m. - County Board of Supervisors John Foust and Cathy Hudgins will talk about the impact that the Fairfax County budget will have on services for seniors. Will seniors be able to count on services that are already in place?
- 1 p.m. - Scams Targeting Seniors: Donna Hatfield, a victim specialist from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, will explain the latest scams and speak about how seniors can protect themselves.

The Senior Resource Fair is sponsored by the Herndon Senior Center and Wesley Housing Development Corporation.
