

Book Club at Gum Springs Computer Clubhouse

We invite you to come meet a local author and have some fun with math! This is a free event for elementary-aged children and their parents.

Gum Springs Computer Clubhouse

8100 Fordson Road

Alexandria, VA 22306

Tuesday, April 23, 2013

5 - 6 p.m.

On a day just like any other, Sam Oodle discovers that he has lost his ability to calculate the simplest math equations. A mischievous sheep, an inquisitive child, and too much candy for one story to handle set the precedent for this epic journey into the world of math. This is a friendly introduction to math concepts for children who may be intimidated and an entertaining story for all.
