If you care about the well-being of women and girls in Fairfax County, let your voice be heard!

Come to the 2005 Women's Voices Forum on April 6 at the Fairfax County Government Center, a free event sponsored by the county's Commission for Women and Office for Women.

This is a chance to hear from panel experts and participate in discussions about key issues affecting women in our community: affordable housing, domestic violence, financial independence, nontraditional career paths, nutrition, and issues affecting seniors. Information from the day's discussions will be shared with county policymakers, including the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors.

The entire community is invited to participate for all or part of the day's events. Lunch will be provided. Registration is free and open to all.

You can make a difference in the lives of women and girls in Fairfax County. Come, learn, and let your voice be heard!
