

The Fairfax County Student Human Rights Commission

presents

The 4th Annual

Fair Housing Art/Poster and Literary Contest

FAIR HOUSING:

OPENING DOORS TO EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

What is Fair Housing?

The Fairfax County Human Rights Ordinance makes it illegal to discriminate in the sale or rental of housing or to otherwise make housing unavailable because of someone's race, color, religion, national origin, elderliness (age), sex, disability, marital status, or familial status (families having children under age 18 in the household). It is also illegal to fail to design and construct new housing (with 4 or more units) in a manner that is accessible to persons with disabilities.

The Fairfax County Student Human Rights Commission is holding this contest to create awareness among high school students of fair housing issues and laws and to promote the importance of providing equal housing opportunities for all.

For more information about fair housing discrimination or the contest please contact the Fairfax County Office of Human Rights & Equity Programs at 703-324-2953, TTY 711 or visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/ohrep/hrd
