Illuminate your Summer with Campfire Stories from Old Centreville

The best stories are those told around a campfire with the fire blazing and the marshmallows toasted just right. On Friday, July 11, 2014, travel to Ellanor C. Lawrence Park to hear Old Centreville come alive before your eyes! Listen to stories from the American Civil War, and try not to shiver when you hear ghost tales. S'more ingredients are provided. Bring flashlights and blankets or chairs to be comfortable. The evening will conclude with a candlelight tour of a mysterious headstone and an ancient miller's house.

Program participants will meet at Cabell's Mill in E.C. Lawrence Park at 8 p.m. for the one-hour event. The cost is $6 for county residents and $8 for out of county.

E.C. Lawrence Park is located at 5040 Walney Road in Chantilly, Va.

This is just one of many campfire programs at Fairfax County parks this summer.

For more information or to sign up, please call 703-631-0013 or go to Parktakes online, www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/parktakes/, and search "Old Centreville" or "campfire."
