Children Rock Out to Rocknoceros at Arts in the Parks

Starting August 2, 2014, Rocknoceros is coming to Fairfax County parks! As part of the Arts in the Parks Summer Concert Series, Rocknoceros provides family fun for children of all ages. Their concerts are free, exciting and nearby!

Rocknoceros began in 2005 when three Fairfax County natives and longtime friends decided to perform kid’s music. In less than six months, their hobby turned into a full-time job. Today, the band plays local shows about 25 times a month. They have gained national recognition with concerts at Lollapalooza, Austin City Limits, Wolf Trap, and the Kennedy Center.

The group will be performing at five different locations in August. All shows take place on Saturdays from 10 to 11 a.m. except the one at Frying Pan Farm Park, which is on a Wednesday.
