Chairman Bulova Fills At-large Vacancy on Park Board

Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Chair Sharon Bulova appointed Walter Alcorn to the Park Authority Board on Tuesday, July 28, 2015, filling a vacancy created by the recent resignation of Kala Quintana who left due to a government appointment. His term will expire on December 31, 2017.

Alcorn is a Reston resident who served on the Fairfax County Planning Commission from 1997 to 2012. He served as vice-chair from 2007 to 2013 and also chaired several Planning Commission committees over the years including Environment, Infill, Residential Development Criteria and Tysons.

He is currently president of the Herndon High School PTSA and is on the board of directors of AHOME.

Alcorn received his B.A. from the University of Virginia in 1988. He is currently employed as Vice President for Environmental Affairs and Industry Sustainability at the Consumer Electronics Association. Previously he worked at Alcorn Consulting and at SAIC from 1992 to 2003. Prior to his private sector employment Alcorn was a policy aide in the Providence District supervisor's office.

The Fairfax County Park Authority Board is appointed by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. These 12 appointees are comprised of one representative from each of the nine magisterial districts, plus three at-large members. The board sets policy and establishes priorities for the park agency.
