Park Authority Director Elected to VRPS Board

Kirk Kincannon, Director of the Fairfax County Park Authority was elected as a member of the 2016 Virginia Recreation and Park Society (VRPS) Board of Directors. His term begins in January and runs for three years. Kincannon, who was appointed to lead the Fairfax County Park Authority in 2014 is a certified parks and recreation professional and considered a local and national leader in the field of recreation.

Kincannon said of his election, “VRPS is a great organization and I look forward to working with my fellow board members to improve our organizations locally and throughout the state, and ultimately, to ensure that residents have access to the best recreational opportunities in the country.”

VRPS is a private, non-profit professional organization, founded in 1953 and incorporated in 1956. Its purpose is to unite all professionals, students, and others engaged in the field of recreation, parks and other leisure services in Virginia, into one body. Members work together to promote and improve the profession.
