Green Spring Gardens Master Planning Process to Start

The Fairfax County Park Authority has started a public planning process that will update the master plan for Green Spring Gardens. This lovely public garden located in Alexandria, Va. owned and operated by the Park Authority, was last master planned in 1992. The purpose of this public process is to review the existing plan for any needed updates and help determine how newly acquired parkland along Green Spring Road can be best used. The Park Authority invites the public to lend its voice to the planning process.

A public information meeting will be held on Thursday, January 29, 2015 at 7 p.m. at Parklawn Elementary School located at 4116 Braddock Road, in Alexandria. At this meeting, Park Authority staff will provide background on the park and the planning process before opening the floor for questions and comments from the community. Follow this planning process on the project website at: www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/plandev/green-spring-gardens.htm. Written comments will also be accepted. If you wish to comment please contact us via email at Parkmail@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Green Spring Gardens serves Fairfax County residents and visitors by advancing the awareness and practice of gardening. Additional programs emphasize historic influences on the land and Fairfax County residents' role in preserving cultural resources. Green Spring Gardens offers a horticulture center, library, demonstration gardens, a historic landscape and buildings, and a wooded stream valley with ponds. Park grounds are open from dawn to dusk.
