PetFest Fun is a Feature of Springfield Days

Springfield Days is a yearly community-oriented event that features many great activities during the first weekend following Memorial Day. In recent years, the event was expanded to include a PetFest which will take place on May 30, 2015 from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. at South Run Park in Springfield, VA, right behind South Run RECenter. PetFest focuses on fun and celebrating the joy pets bring to our lives. It showcases local businesses and vendors, artists, activities, on-stage entertainment and animal rescue organizations.

Don't miss the Blessing of the Pets and a Paws on Parade. Pet-related exhibitors include:

- The Regional Veterinary Referral Center
- Olde Towne Pet Resort
- Felix & Oscar
- South Run RECenter with an off-leash dog park
- Fairfax County Animal Shelter

If your pup needs to cool off, let him take a splash in the doggie pools. Then enjoy the on-stage entertainment by Mutts Gone Nuts Comedy Show, get a free reading by our famous animal communicator, Diane Roadcap, or simply take in the activities while relaxing on a bench or a blanket while you sample some of the great food from the various food vendors that attend PetFest.

The event also focuses on adoption and rescue organizations that are at the event, in hopes that the animals they have rescued will, too, find their forever home and a loving family!
