Hello Stranger Brings Carter Family Sound to Farm

Don't be a stranger when Dale Jett and country ensemble Hello Stranger keep the Carter Family music tradition alive with a concert at Frying Pan Farm Park on Thursday, July 2, 2015. The group includes Teresa Jett, Oscar Harris and Dale Jett – a third-generation member of the legendary Carter Family. Band members strive to carry on the family's music tradition as the ensemble continues the unbroken circle of country music that has influenced them.

The free performance begins at 7:30 p.m. at Frying Pan Farm Park at 2709 West Ox Road in Herndon, VA. For more information about the Summer Entertainment Series visit online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances. This series is sponsored by the Park Authority in partnership with the Fairfax County Park Foundation and generous contributions from the local business community and corporation.
