Need something to do with the kids this summer? Consider taking them to see a fun puppet rendition of Little Red Riding Hood as told through puppets at The Goodlife Theater. And perhaps in the evening, listen to the musical talents of the band Rocknoceros as they perform original children songs at Lee District Park Amphitheater. These events will surely entertain the kids and make family time more enjoyable on Wednesday, July 8, 2015.

The Goodlife Theater presents “Little Red Rockethood and other Space Age Tales.” Join Joe Pipik and a cast of puppets for this far-out version of a classic story. Little Red rides a rocket to the Grandma Planet with a basket of goodies. Can a Space Wolf be far behind? This production takes place at Frying Pan Farm Park Visitor Center from 10 to 11 a.m. and is FREE for the whole family.

Rocknoceros is a sensational three-man band hailing from Fairfax, Virginia, performing original children’s songs and much-loved favorites. The performance features a great combination of folk and rock literate songs appealing to all generations. Wildly popular, award-winning music for the whole family! They will be performing at Lee District Park Amphitheater from 7:30-8:30 p.m. Put on those dancing shoes and come join all the excitement at this FREE performance!

Frying Pan Farm Park Visitor Center is located at 2739 West Ox Road, Herndon, VA.
