Let's Hear it for the Absurdly Fun Band; Eddie from Ohio!

Grab your friends and family and get ready for an energetic night that will leave you blown away. This band is considered to be too energetic to be labeled “folk” and not angry enough to be pegged “alternative.” Their unique blend of vocals and acoustic instruments has been compared to those of the Grateful Dead or Peter, Paul, and Mary. This band has also won four Wammies (Washington, DC Area Music Awards) and was formed in Virginia in 1991.

Eddie from Ohio will be performing at Arrowbrook Centre Park in Herndon, Va. on Saturday, July 11, 2015 from 7:30-8:30 p.m. Grab your blankets, chairs, and picnic dinners for an unstoppable night listening to the textual flavoring of guitar/bass/harmonica paired with four-part harmonization. And best of all, the concert is FREE.

Arrowbrook Centre Park is located at 2351 Field Point Road, Herndon, Va. For more information call 703-324-7469 or go online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances
