Ice Cream and History Come Together at Historic Sully

If you love ice cream, butter, history and family fun, you are going to love Dairy Days at Sully Historic Site. This program, held three times in August allows participants to churn butter, crank ice cream, and play historic games for an authentic taste of 18th century life at Sully.

Join in the fun on Fridays – August 14, 21 and 28, 2015. This is a perfect activity for participants age five to adult. The cost is $7 per person. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Tours of the historic house are available for an additional cost.

An oasis of the past, Sully reflects the history of Fairfax County. Completed in 1799 by Richard Bland Lee, the main house at Sully combines aspects of Georgian and Federal architecture. Richard Bland Lee was Northern Virginia's first Representative to Congress, as well as General Robert E. Lee's uncle. Sully includes original outbuildings, representative slave quarter and gardens. Guided tours highlight the early 19th century life of the Richard Bland Lee family, tenant farmers and enslaved African Americans.

Sully Historic Site is located at 3650 Historic Sully Way, Chantilly, VA. For more information contact the site at 703-437-1794 or visit online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/sully-historic-site/>
