Parks Are Alive With Summer Sounds

On Friday, August 21, 2015, enjoy a wide variety of free musical performances taking place in parks across Fairfax County, all going from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Take a step back in time to when big band reigned, and enjoy the sounds of Swing Shift at Lake Accotink Park. Full of energy and nostalgia, Swing Shift’s renditions of “When The Saints Go Marching In” and “Sweet Georgia Brown” are sure to delight, as well as introduce younger guests to the music of a bygone era. Lake Accotink Park is located at 7500 Accotink Park Road in Springfield.

Enjoy the sounds of the South with The Hot Seats, a bluegrass group that mixes traditional and contemporary music to create a unique style all their own. Inspired by Woody Guthrie and Frank Zappa, the band is sure to entertain in the style of classic folk singers. The performance will take place at Mason District Park, located at 6621 Columbia Pike in Springfield

Step into the signature genre of the DC area and enjoy the music of Lori Williams and Friends, a contemporary jazz ensemble. Often compared to Ella Fitzgerald, Williams’ technical prowess is sure to please jazz fans of all ages. The performance will take place at Royal Lake Park, located at 5344 Gainsborough Drive in Fairfax.

The Summer Entertainment Series is presented by the Fairfax County Park Authority in partnership with the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and through the generous contributions of local businesses and corporations.
