Get Insider Info During Historic Huntley Talk & Tour

Get the inside scoop about the tenant house at Historic Huntley before the building is restored during a tour and discussion led by preservation consultant Debbie Robison. This program takes place on October 3, 2015 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Robison will reveal new information about the Fairfax County Park Authority property and discuss how contemporary trends influenced the cultural landscape. She will host a discussion about the farm manager's house, Huntley's double ditches and the influence of pattern books on villa design. After the talk, put your new knowledge to use during a tour of the buildings and grounds at Historic Huntley. The suggested donation is $5.

Robison manages the historic preservation and restoration program for an architectural and engineering firm in Herndon, serves on the Fairfax County History Commission, and is a member of the board of the Historic Centreville Society. She has written numerous articles about northern Virginia's past and hosts the Northern Virginia History Notes website.

Historic Huntley is located at 6918 Harrison Lane, Alexandria, VA. Special event parking is at the Woodlawn Faith United Methodist Church. For more information, call 703-768-2525 or visit www.historichuntley.org.
