McNaughton Fields Park Renovation to Start

The Fairfax County Park Authority will soon begin work to renovate McNaughton Fields Park located at 5320 Pole Road, Alexandria, VA.

The contractor, Scheibel Construction, will be mobilizing on site shortly with active construction activities beginning in early February. This project includes the demolition of existing site features and the construction of four new diamond fields with related amenities and supporting infrastructure to include stormwater management facilities, parking lot, walkways, utilities, irrigation, lighting, fencing and related site work. Active construction is anticipated to be completed in December 2016 with the renovated park opening for use in April 2017. Residents should expect occasional construction traffic entering and exiting the park entrance on Pole Road.

For more information, please contact the Project Manager, Melissa Emory at Melissa.Emory@fairfaxcounty.gov or 703-324-8752.
