Park Board Reappoints Two Directors to Park Foundation

The Fairfax County Park Authority Board has confirmed the reappointments of Janyce N. Hedetniemi and Lane Brooks to the Park Foundation Board of Directors. At its meeting on April 13, 2016, the Park Board approved the appointments on the recommendation of the Park Foundation Board of Directors.

Hedetniemi is a longtime resident of Annandale, Virginia. She joined the Fairfax County Park Foundation Board in 2013 and previously served the Park Authority Board as an at-large member. Hedetniemi is a consultant in community relations and constituency development. The Foundation Board nominated her for reappointment to a second three-year term beginning with the expiration of her current term.

Brooks is the chief operating officer for Food & Water Watch, a multi-million-dollar consumer advocacy organization working for safe food and clean water and a national leader in the move to ban fracking, promote tap water over bottled water, and advance sustainable food practices without genetically modified organisms. The Foundation Board nominated Brooks for reappointment to a second three-year term beginning with the expiration of his current term.

The Fairfax County Park Foundation supports the Fairfax County Park Authority by raising private funds, obtaining grants, and creating partnerships that supplement tax dollars to meet our community's needs for park land, facilities and services.
