Get a Jazzy Start to your Summer with Free Concerts

The Fairfax County Park Authority's free Summer Entertainment series kicks off the first week in June with three different ways to enjoy the sounds of jazz.

On Wednesday evening, June 1, 2016, the David Bach Consort performs at the Lee District Park Amphitheater. This spirited and eclectic group excites crowds with unique musical entertainment. You may have caught them in the past at historic Blues Alley or Jazzmatazz with B. B. King. Lee District Park is located at 6601 Telegraph Road in Franconia, Virginia. For more information, visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/rec/leerec/>.

Hear the next generation of jazz musicians perform on Friday evening, June 3, when the Annandale Jazz Ambassadors take to the stage at the Mason District Park Amphitheater. This group is comprised of musicians age 12 to 18 who rehearse and perform concerts in the Washington, D.C., area before heading out of town on domestic and international good will tours.

The following night, Saturday, June 4, Earl Carter brings his smooth jazz to the Mason Amphitheater. This locally-based guitarist, bassist and producer has performed at Blues Alley, Rams Head Onstage, and many other historic regional venues. Mason District Park is located at 6621 Columbia Pike, Annandale, VA. For more information, visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/maps/masonmap.htm>.

All three performances begin at 7:30 p.m., and there is no cost to attend these outdoor events. For last-minute cancellations due to inclement weather, call 703-324-SHOW (7469) one hour prior to the program start time.

For more details about the Fairfax County Park Authority Summer Entertainment Series, visit online at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances. This series is sponsored by the Park Authority in partnership with the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and with generous contributions from local businesses and corporations through the Park Foundation.
