Parks Host a Tea Party and Delve Into Old-time Cures on May 28

Enjoy an eclectic pair of programs in Fairfax County parks on Saturday, May 28, 2016, where you can find a little something for everyone.

The youngest park lovers can hear the story “The Little Red Hen Makes Pizza” as they sip mint tea or apple juice and munch on animal crackers at Hidden Oaks Nature Center. Participants age three and older will get to make a pretend pizza and a craft. The program runs from 1 to 1:45 p.m., and the cost is $7 per person. Children must be accompanied by an adult registered in the program. Hidden Oaks Nature Center is located at 7701 Royce Street, Annandale, VA. For more information, call 703-941-1065 or visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/hidden-oaks/.

History buffs will enjoy the Cures from the Quarter program at Sully Historic Site’s slave quarter. Learn how enslaved African Americans maintained their health, and discover the ways in which healthcare for slaves differed from the care given to their masters. You will learn about the Native American influence on early American healthcare, too. Reservations are suggested for this program at 1, 2, and 3 p.m. A Forgotten Road Tour is included. The cost is $7 for adults, $6 for students, and $5 for seniors and children. Sully Historic Site is located at 3650 Historic Sully Way, Chantilly, VA. For more information, call 703-437-1794 or visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/sully-historic-site/>.
