UPDATE

Homicide Ruled Justifiable

Detectives concluded their investigation in late February. They learned that Kyle Pforr was attempting to rob a 20-year-old Rose Hill-area man. The man defended himself during the robbery and subsequently stabbed Pforr in the upper body. The Fairfax County Commonwealth's Attorney determined this case to be a justifiable homicide.

UPDATE

Fatal Assault Being Investigated as Homicide

Detectives are seeking the public's assistance in identifying witnesses to the homicide that occurred on Monday, January 19. An investigation has determined that shortly before checking into the hospital, Kyle Pforr was sitting inside a parked car in the 4500 block of Kerrybrooke Drive when another man walked by. Pforr exited the vehicle and approached that man. A brief struggle took place and Pforr was subsequently stabbed. The suspect in the stabbing was described as white, in his late teens to early 20s. He was between 5 feet 9 to 5 feet 11 inches tall and 160 pounds. He wore a navy blue hoodie and blue jeans.
