Information Bulletin: Burglars Arrested

Kingstowne Burglars are Nabbed

Franconia Station police officers responded to a burglary alarm on the night of August 20 at 6700 South Van Dorn Street. They arrived at the BP Gas Station and discovered that the garage door was smashed. Burglars stole cigarettes and fled before police arrived.

Officers immediately saturated the area looking for the suspects. A K-9 was deployed and began tracking towards an adjacent neighborhood. Two police officers decided to drive through that neighborhood in an unmarked vehicle. They were able to spot suspicious activity at a townhouse and investigated. Police identified an adult resident as one of the burglars. A 17-year-old Woodbridge-area suspect fled the townhouse as officers approached but was apprehended a short time later.

Nicholas Barkley, 18, of 6815 Heatherway Court, was charged with burglary and petit larceny. The juvenile was charged with burglary and grand larceny.

Barkley, Nicholas
